The Velveteen Rabbit

Spring is in the air and the bunnies are creeping out of their winter hiding places. Catch them along with the Skinned Horse, the Nursery Fairies, and the Boy as the story of “The Velveteen Rabbit” comes to the Sottile Theatre, 44 George St. Young and old alike will marvel at the familiar classic story as it comes alive February 19-20 @ 9:00 am and 10:30 am and February 21 @ 12:00 Noon.

Mr. Ivey has choreographed a beautifully narrated story ballet featuring both Senior Company and Youth Ballet members creating a natural blend of talent that will chase even the most stubborn winter blues away. This heart warming story proves that love can make things real.

Don't miss out on the fun! Make “The Velveteen Rabbit” a family tradition and enjoy all of the wonder and majesty of live theatre. Tickets are $8.00 per person and group rates are available. Please call 556-1343 for reservations and additional information.

The Velveteen Rabbit Tea Party

After the “Velveteen Rabbit” production there will be a “Velveteen Rabbit Tea Party” upstairs at the Sottile for an additional $5.00. A Velveteen Rabbit bunny bag will be provided with a cheese sandwich and cookies along with a boxed juice drink. Parents are free. Parents bring your camera and take pictures of your child with the Velveteen Rabbit characters. Bright colored eggs will be given out by the bunnies with small prizes inside. This makes a memorable day of theatre for the entire family.
